SHARKEY HAS HIS TWO BEST BLOWS WHEN FIGHTING SHOWN BY SAILOR SHARKEY'S FAMOUS LEFT-HAND SWING.

TERRIBLE RIGHT-HAND SWING THE SAILOR USES VERY OFTEN.

JACK JOHNSON WON FROM "BLACK BILL" IN PHILA.

(Special to The Evening World.) PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 15.—Jack Johnson, who claims the colored heavy-weight championship of the world, made good last night at the Lenox Athletic Club, when he met Black Bill, of Merchantville. One week ago Johnson met Sandy Ferguson in a fake bout, and last night he showed a disposition to redeem himself. He gave Black Bill a severe drubbing for six rounds, but did not succeed in knocking his man out. Black Bill was awkward, and it is probably due to this fact that he did not receive the blow saporitic. Twice he was knocked down, but the blows did not reach the vital spot, and at the end of the bout he was weak and weary. Johnson used his left effectively and soon had Bill bleeding from the mouth. He then brought his right into play and smashed Bill's jaw hard. The latter took the punishment gamely, but seemed afraid to lead. There were several hot mix-ups, but Johnson easily held his opponent safe throughout. In the last round he made a desperate effort to bring the bout to an end before the going, and although he hit Bill hard and often the Merchantville man was on hand at the going. The semi wind-up was a corker.

HILLEBRAND FOR THE TIGER NINE

PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 16.—Oletha, announcement was made yesterday that Coach Arthur J. Hillebrand has been secured by the Athletic Committee to coach the Princeton baseball team this season. Hillebrand turned out a victorious baseball team last year, and also the championship football eleven. He was graduated from Princeton in 1899, and captain of the championship baseball and football team. Trainer James Robinson, who has the distinction of being the only trainer of the Princeton teams in all branches of athletics for the next three years.

LAST SEASON AT MORRIS PARK TRACK

Entries for the Metropolitan Handicap, a race with stirring recollections, will close to-day at the office of the Westchester Racing Association. As usual, it will be the principal feature of the opening day of the Morris Park spring meeting, which will begin on Thursday, May 5. Peculiar interest attaches to this year's contest, because it will be the last season that the Westchester Racing Association will use its present home, inasmuch as August Belmont and his associates expect to open the new track at Queens, L. I., in June of 1905, and the Metropolitan Handicap will then be transferred to the Long Island track.

INDIANS WILL GO IN DISTANCE RACE

The feature of the indoor meet to be held by the Greater New York Irish A. A. at the Garden on March 2 will be the ten-mile A. A. championship, in which all the noted distance runners of the country will appear, including Jerry and Frank Pierce, the Seneca Indians, and the former pointers, Mike and George. The Greater New York A. A. present one and five mile champion, Alex Grant, of the record of 27:45, for two miles; George Doherty, of the record of 10:10, for one mile; and George Doherty, of the record of 10:10, for one mile; and George Doherty, of the record of 10:10, for one mile.

TOM JENKINS WILL BE VERY BUSY MAN

Tom Jenkins will be a busy wrestler for the next few weeks if his manager keeps on making matches at the present rate. Besides his contest with Lundin, which takes place Feb. 17 at Prospect Hill, Brooklyn, he will tackle Hansen, the Danish champion, in a mixed-style match at Perth Amboy on the 18th, and on the 23d he will meet Emil Selva at Paterson. Jenkins is working faithfully for his match with Lundin, as the contest is a mixed-style affair, and as that means one of the falls will be decided under Graco-Roman rules he will have to be right to win, the Swede being one of the greatest Graco-Roman wrestlers in the world.

LANGFORD VS. M'WINTERS.

Langford, the colored light-weight, of Boston, who has been much sought after since he secured a disqualification over Gus, the champion light-weight, will meet M'Winters, of New York, in a ten-round bout at the Knickerbocker on Feb. 22.

HITTE AND MELLODY AGAIN.

Charley Hittle, the Albany welter-weight, and Billy Melody, of Charlestown, Mass., are to clash after all. They have agreed to fight twenty rounds at 125 pounds on Feb. 22, in Boston. The bout will probably be at the Tammany Athletic Club.

JEFFRIES M'COY

Big Champion, Interviewed by the "Kid," Says Winner Is Hard to Pick in Fight Between Miner and Ex-Sailor.

BY CHARLES "KID" M'COY.

"WHO will win the Sharkey-Munroe battle?" I fired this question point blank at the champion of all the champions, James J. Jeffries.

I had been ordered to find out from Jeff what he thought of the sailorman and the miner as fighters and who would win their coming six-round passage at arms at Quakertown.

So I went at the champion with bare knuckles.

Can Munroe Place His Blows?

But he side-stepped me. He had a Dutch answer ready. "Has Munroe learned how to place his blow?" I was a bit surprised at the query. The miner must certainly have improved a great deal since that day he stood the massive boiler-maker off for four rounds.

For a supposedly "green" man Munroe places his blows with a great deal of accuracy and most positively with an immense amount of force behind them; and I told Jeffries so.

Will Be a Hard Fight, Says Jeff.

"Then," said the big fellow, with that quiet, good-natured smile of his, "it will be a hard fight."

He saw my smile at his evasion of my question.

"Look here, Charley," he said, "I cannot attempt to pick the winner of this bout, even if I knew positively which one would win. I have promised the winner a chance to fight me for the world's championship, and for that reason I do not want to have any feeling in the matter or voice my opinion as to the outcome."

"I will be at the ringside and I want to sit back and watch the best man win."

I saw that he was right.

"Well, Jim," I asked him, "what sort of a battle, from your knowledge of the styles of the two men, do you think they will put up?"

"Slugging pure and simple," he replied quick as a flash.

Go Will Be a Slugging Match.

"Slugging, eh?"

"Yes; good, hard, old-fashioned slugging. I have fought Sharkey forty-five rounds and I know that that is all he knows how to do. He is on top of his man all the time with full-arm swings, right and left, right and left. He keeps them going like a windmill, and it's a case of 'Sally, bar the door,' if he catches the right spot. He carries sure death in either hand if he hits you right."

"Of Munroe's style of course I do not know so much. He was pretty green when I met him, but he was certainly a big, tough, strong, dangerous man. His lack of the fine points of ring tactics was his most prominent fault the time I met him. Undoubtedly he has learned a great deal since then. His quick and decisive victories over Peter Maher and that fellow Limerick show that he has 'come on' a good bit. As to his style a straight right hand to the short ribs under the heart seemed to be his best blow."

Munroe Handy with His Left.

"Yes, it is," I affirmed. "He has also a good left hand. He sticks it out in very clever fashion. It has a great deal of power behind it, and he will give the sailor many a jolt with it if he uses it as well in the ring as he does when working with me in my gymnasium."

Then I showed Jeffries this straight left of Munroe's.

The big fellow grunted as I stung his nose.

"Say," he said, "that would almost bother me."

I wonder if he meant it?

CONKIE MORE THAN A MATCH FOR WILLOUGHBY

(Special to The Evening World.) BUFFALO, Feb. 16.—Walter Willoughby, of Buffalo, holds the title of middle-weight wrestling champion, but he found it impossible to throw Charlie Conkie, the Canadian welter-weight, in two hours and a half of catch-as-catch-can wrestling at the Olympic Club last night, and at the end of that period their match was called a draw. In fact, toward the end of the bout matters began to look equally for the Buffalo champion. Willoughby was a top-heavy favorite, as his recent defeat of Ed Atherton was thought practically to insure victory over the lighter Hamilton man. Both men were found in fine form, with Willoughby having in the neighborhood of twenty pounds the better of the other man. Walter weighing apparently between 160 and 170 pounds, the Kid Frederick-Willie Fitzgerald twenty-round bout, which was to have been the Fort Erie boxing arena Feb. 22, has been declared off owing to internal dissension in the club.

DELMONT KNOCKED OUT SCHUMAKER.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Feb. 16.—Willie Schumaker, of New York, was knocked out cleanly last night by Albert Delmont, of Boston, in the eighth round of what was scheduled to be a fifteen-round go. The fight was the best that has taken place here. Schumaker came on with-out seconds, but Prof. Jack Falvey went in his corner. The fight started in lively and neither man wasted a moment. The Cuban's chances were of defeating Schumaker could hardly see from blood. But managed to stay the round out, almost landed a severe right-hand uppercut, knocking Schumaker out.

BIG HOCKEY GAME ON FOR TO-NIGHT

Howard Drakeley, President of the National Amateur Hockey League, has been selected as referee in the great championship contest between the Wanderers and the Skating Club teams at the Clevermont avenue rink, Brooklyn, this evening. This contest practically decides the championship, for if the Wanderers, who have a tie with the Wanderers, win it will give the Wanderers a chance and the four-time winners have never lost in a play-off. The match promises to be replete with exciting plays, and every admirer of the great winter pastime will be anxious to see the event decided. The Wanderers are coming across the bridge in their own observation. "Scouts" New York, with their last contingent of players, monkey mascot, with his hockey stick, and all. They confidently expect to win, but so do the Brooklynites, who have formed every team in the big league in their play.

CUBAN WORKING HARD FOR BOTHNER

Clarence Bouldin, the "Cuban Wonder," put in a strenuous day's training under the watchful eye of his tutor, Tom Jenkins, to-day. Jenkins has trained Bouldin for all of his important matches and when asked to-day what he thought of the Cuban's chances he replied: "The Cuban is working hard, but he is not yet ready to meet Bothner. He has to be at the Seventy-first Regiment Armory, Lenox, L. I., on the 23d, and the Graco-Roman champion replied: 'Bouldin has defeated the best men at all weights in the West, and is yet to meet with defeat. I have wrestled Bothner and know all his tricks, which I have taught the Cuban, and it is my honest opinion that he will easily defeat Bothner.'

TOMMY RYAN TO FIGHT BEAUSCHOLTE

Tommy Ryan, the champion middle-weight, will engage in another battle in the near future. Despite the fact that Ryan has said that he would not be able to fight again for some time, owing to his poor health, he nevertheless has signed articles of agreement to meet Jack Beauschulte, the big Chicago heavy-weight, for ten rounds before the end of the month. Ryan has already beaten Beauschulte twice.

COLORED FIGHTERS IN CHICAGO MAD

The colored fighters in and about Chicago are all worked up over the recent riot which will eventually bar them from fighting altogether in that city. They claim their American citizenship entitles them to the same rights as white fighters, and they declare they will engage attorneys and enjoin all clubs from holding boxing shows that bar them from fighting. The club match-makers say they have only barred the colored fighters from boxing white men, but that they can batter one another's heads off as much as they choose.

POOL TOURNAMENT.

Beginning Tuesday evening, Feb. 23, there will be a pool tournament for the championship of Greater New York in croquet at the Broadway Academy, Broadway and Sixty-fifth street. The winner of the contest will receive $100. Entries will be received until Feb. 21. For details see the names scheduled up to date to take part in the contest. William Webb, John Doherty, Joseph Kirkland, of Washington, D. C., and Frank Long, who will defend the affair.

ONE PUNCH ENDS THIS PRIVATE "GO"

Jimmy Doran knocked out Dan Hurley in a private fight last night in a gymnasium near the corner of Fifty-ninth street and Madison avenue. The Hurley fight was the corner of Fifty-ninth street and Madison avenue. The Hurley fight was the corner of Fifty-ninth street and Madison avenue. HANDLER IN SALEM.

Jimmy Handler, the Newark middle-weight, has been matched to meet Charley O'Rourke, the New England welter-weight, for ten rounds before the Apollo A. C. of Salem, Mass., on Feb. 22.
